Loudon, June 20.

Yefterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Constantinople, May 24.

H E Port has received several Expresses from the Frontiers of Persia, giving an Account, that the Chief of the Revol-Account, that the Chief of the Revolfapported by the Grand Mogul, had caused a general Revolution throughout the Petsian Kingdom a The fifth, who is most formidable, has made himfelf Master not only of all the Country from Candahar to the Capital of Persia, but having entirely routed the Persian King, he laid Siege to Upahan, took its Citadel, and put the Inhabitants under Contribution. This Miriveis is the more powerful, his Army being for the most Part compused of Volunteers, to whom he has given Leave to plan. Volunteers, to whom he has given Leave to plunder all the Ciries he marches through, without either fparing Christians or Turks. Scheich Mahmod has also made great Progress, having massered all the Country from Dagistan to the Province of Erivan. The King of Persia cleaped very narrowly, being accompanied in his Flight only by three or four Persons to the Frontiers of the Ottoman. or four Persons to the Frontiers of the Ottoman Empire : He has implored the Grand Signior's ccour, but 'tis not faid what Refolution the Port has taken upon that Request.

Moscow, May 24. The Caar is this Day set out for Aftracan, and the Princesses will shortly begin their Journey towards Petersbourg. Count Apraxin, Grand Admiral, being to affift in the Expedition in the Caspian Sea, set out thither some Days before the Caar, as did likewife M. Tolftoy, a Privy Concellour, Lieutenant General Baturlan, Prince Trubeskoy President of the College of Re-gency, and Prince Demetrius Cantimir, Hospo-dar of Wallachia. The young Princesses are expected back hisher next Autumn. Prince Mentikoff goes likewise to Petersbourg with some Deputies of the College, but the Senate is to toutinue longer in this City, as also the High Chancellour and the Vice-Chancellour. The Duke of Holkein will abide in some of the untry Houses in this Neighbourhoood till the The foreign Ministers may either Caar's Return. The foreign Ministers may estuce flay here, or go back to Petersbourg. Advices from thence fay, that Vice-Admiral Gordon and Reer Admiral Sanders are to command the Squadron of 15 Men of War that are to put to Sea this Summer in those Parts. The Troops that are fent upon the Expedition towards Persia are paid four Months Pay in advance, and 'tis assured the Funds appointed for the Military Chest to answer the Expences of this Enterprise, amount to 1200000 Rubles. It Caar's Return. of this Enterprise, amount to 1300000 Rubles. It is reported, that Barracks are to be built in this City and at Petersbourg. The Capigi Bafhaw who came here lately from Constantinople, 'ris faid has no o-ther Business to transact, than to congratulate the Case on the Conclusion of the Peace with Sweden; and that he has acquitted himself of that Matter in an Audience he had of the Chief Chancellour Golof kin, to whom he delivered Letters on this Sablefkin, to whom its first from the Grand Signior. Rome, June 6. The King of Spain's Agent has Rome, June 6. The King of Spain's Agent has Rome. jest from the Grand Signior.

Rome, June 6. The King of Spain's Agent has delivered to Cardinal Spinola, Secretary of State, a Protest in the Name of his Catholick Majesty against the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples in favour of the Emperour. On the 1st Instant the Pops held a Consistory, at which all the Cardinals here affished, except Cardinal Belluga; in this Consistory the Pope proposed the Investiture of Naples for his Imperial Majesty; and To-Day his Holinels was present at a General Congregation of all the Cardinals, who gave their Consent to the Investiture upon the Terms agreed on; mother Congregation is shortly to be held, in which this affair is to be finally concluded.

Marfalles, June 9. The Contagion which was lately renewed in this City is almost entirely that ted, no Person having sallen sick or died in several Daye past, although many of the Inhabitants assisted contrary to all Prohibitions, at the lates olemn Procession of the Pete Diet. If Matters hold thus for eight on 10 Days longer, the Inhabitants will have Leave given them to Communicate and Trade together, as before; nevertheles all nearstary Precautions are taken to provide, as much as possible, against the Distempet; to which purpose, a new Infirmary is building without the city on a fort of Peninsula; in the mean Time, the Chevalier de Langeron is impatiently expected here from Paris to give such Orders in his new Government here as he shall judge convenient.

Geneva, June 17. Advices from Penyence say, the Plague is again coased at Marseilles; that the Golden Cross Street is opened a new, that the springing Silks from Avignon was the Means of this late Return of the Contagion, but that the Fryar's bringing Silks from Avignon was the Means of this late Return of the Contagion, but that the Fryar's feized, as are likewise 30 Persons more who traded in Counterband Goods; that its boped they will be all punished, after the Example shewn by the Magistrates of Touton, who caused 40 such like Offenders to be shot to Death. Letters from Avignon, say seven or eight Persons a Day die there, but that very little of the Distemper remains either non, (ay feven or eight Persons a Day die there, but that very little of the Distemper remains either in the Comtat or in Provence. Letters from Legin the Comiat or in Provence. Letters from Leghorn say, that the Spaniards are strengthing themselves at Porto Longone, and that the Imperialists are doing the like at Orbitello.

Paris, June 24. Letters from Rome of the 30th past advise, that the Pope's Bull for the lovestiture of the Kingdom of Naples to the Emperour had some Days before been printed in the Apostolical Printing-Office, but had been communicated to none but the Cardinal d'Althan, who had sent it by an Express an Vienna. It was to be made publick Printing-Office, but had been communicated to none bet the Cardinal d'Althan, who had sent it by an Exprese to Vienna. It was to be made publick in a Consistory the Beginning of June 3 after which Publication the Cardinal d'Althan (as Viceroy of Naples) was to dine publickly with the Pope (as is usual on the like Occasion,) when the Pope being seated in his Throne, raised on three Steps, the Cardinal was to take his Seat on a Stool at amother Table over against him. The three following Days the Cardinal was to be entertained at Castel-Gandolfo by the Officers of the Pope's Houshold; and on the 12th of June was to imbark at Nettuno on board the Neapolitan Gallies for Naples, to take upon him the Viceroyship of that Kingdom. The Constable Colonna having been appointed by the Emperour to make the usual Present of a Pad to the Pope on Occasion of the said Investiture, was making great Preparations for performing that Ceremony on the Eve of the Festival of St. Peter. These Letters add, that on the 29th of May Don Joseph Herrera, Secretary of Spain residing at Rome, received Letters by an Express from the King his Master, which he communicated the next Day to the Pope's Secretary of State 3 in which his Catholick Majesty made new Instances to the Pope, that the Process against Cardinal Alberoni might be carried on with the utmost Vigour.
